

SOCIETY, STATE & ETHIOPIAN HISTORY

Selected Essays

by Bahru Zewde, Ph.D.

Book Signing and Discussion

Review:

“The papers collected here show that the past is, indeed, essential to an understanding of the present of the embattled Horn of Africa and eloquently testify to the complexity and depth of the history of Ethiopia.” --Donald Crummey

“This is a refreshing and reassuring example ... of the scholar at his best, as a unifier, as a peacemaker, and ultimately as a responsible citizen.” --Assefa Bequele

“This is important to follow the evolution of the ideas of Ethiopia’s leading historian produced in one of the most turbulent periods of the country’s long history. ” --Shiferaw Bekele

Book Detail:

Author: Bahru Zewde

Format: Paperback; 6”x9”; 500+pp

ISBN code: 978-1-59907-043-8

Retail Price: $39.95

What: Book Signing

When: Sunday, November 20, 2011 at 2:00 PM

Where: George Washington University

The Law School Moot Court Room
2000 H Street, NW, Washington, DC 20052

Free Street Parking | Free Entrance to the public